

Feel good heating

From Worcester Bosch

A warm welcome

To the future of heating

We're here to help you and your customers embrace the latest heating technologies and reduce carbon emissions*, whatever their home, property, or business. Our dedicated team can support with everything from technical advice and on-site commissioning to aftersales support, helping to make you and your customers' transition to heat pumps easy.

The complete solution from Worcester Bosch

Award-winning support

We've got it covered

Nationwide coverage

Discover our helpful resources:

End-to-end support

With resources available to you at every stage, from specialist sales managers to our expert technical team, heat pump commissioning support and installer FAQ videos.

Scan for installer
how-to videos

Dedicated design team

With the heating industry evolving, we recognise now more than ever, you need support on all fronts. Our expert design team are on hand to support you with heat pump specifications and MCS certified system schematics.

Contact the team

Email: system.design@uk.bosch.com

Tel: 01905 751464

Aftersales support

For you, the installer, or your customer, via telephone, social media or email, our teams can triage queries to advise on guarantees and repairs, all from an expert team. And with engineers across the UK, you're covered.

Access our support